History of the Blues

The Musician

Brett Hunt, BCA, is a singer/songwriter, actor, guitarist and harmonica player, who has toured from country halls to major venues throughout Australia for the last ten years. He has released three critically acclaimed albums and shared the stage with Taj Mahal, Roger McGuinn (The Byrds), Dr John, Bela Fleck, The Waifs, Lior and many more.

The Performance

An informative, irreverent and often hilarious one-hour performance. Featuring 12 songs from some of the blues' greats, including Robert Johnson, Sonny Terry and Brownie McGee. The concert explores the continuing relevance of the blues in contemporary music: the people who made the blues, the legends and stories, and the politics that created the revolution that is blues music.

Comments from students

"You did a workshop at our school and it was awesome! I loved your songs, especially 'Rachel'."

"It was awesome for you to come to our school and give insights into song writing! Thanks for that! Your songs are soooo good and you're an amazing guitarist. Keep up the musical fusion."

"I just wanted to say how inspired I was watching and listening today."

"I really dig your songs. They're wicked good. It really seems there are a lot of emotions behind them. I respect that."

"Thanks heaps for all you have told me. It's really helped to broaden my abilities to song write. Thanks."
